HCARC officers elected

The Hancock County Association for Retarded Citizens (HCARC) met May 26 in the Gulf National Bank Civic Room.

New officers elected for the year were Anne Bennett Ladner, president; Jean Kendall, vice president; Shirley Kirkland, secretary; Janice DesAngles, treasurer; and Jerry Benigno, publicity.

The organization voted to discontinue its monthly meetings during the summer months, with its next regular meeting scheduled for September 22. A steering committee was appointed to organize and coordinate projects for the coming year. The committee is composed of Pam Baumgartner, Shirley Kirkland, Jean Kendall, Jane Baumgartner, Janice DesAngles, Jerry Benigno. The committee will meet June 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Pam Baumgartner, 129 Lakeside Villa, Diamondhead.

MR. AND MRS. MONVEL CUEVAS of Leetown, have announced the engagement and forthcoming wedding of their daughter, Cynthia Marlene, to Richard Duon Whifford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Whifford of Salem. Miss Cuevas is a graduate of Hancock North Central High School and an honors graduate of the Barbizon School of Modeling in New Orleans. The groom-elect, a brick mason, is a graduate of the Pearl River Academy, Class of '76. To be married in Lee's Chapel No. 2, Leetown, at 5 p.m., Saturday, June 25, the couple are inviting all friends and relatives to a reception to follow at the home of the bride in the Leetown Community. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Lee of Leetown, and Mrs. Oudia M. Cuevas, and the late Oliver Cuevas of Nacaise. Paternal grandparents are: Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bounds of Salem, and Mrs. Lucille Williams and the late Ray Whifford of Picayune.

Do you care enough?

Do you care enough to get involved in loving?

This has been the theme of the newly reorganized Hancock County Association for Retarded Citizens (HCARC), and they are making a plea to everyone in the county to join them in helping to give our special citizens every opportunity to become productive.

In order to make this membership drive a success, we need your help. Please fill out the form below and send, along with a check for $5.00 to: Hancock County Association for Retarded Citizens, c/o Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, Highway 90, Bay St. Louis, Ms. 39520.

MRS. MARY DAVIS

Mrs. Mary DeBellefield Davis, 72, wife of John F. Davis and a resident of 26 Gulf Terrace Dr. in Pass Christian, died Thursday at Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

The body was sent from Lang Funeral Home in Gulfport to St. John Cemetery Crematorium in New Orleans.

Born in Wilkinsburg, Pa., she had resided in California prior to moving to Pass Christian.

She was former accountant and business director for Y.W.C.A. in Hawaii and a former accountant for the U.S. Navy. Mrs. Davis was also a member of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Pass Christian and the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jeanne Coker of Pass Christian; several brothers and sisters; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

FREDERICK CANNON SR.

Funeral services for Frederick Willmer Cannon Sr. were conducted Friday at 11 a.m. in Riemann-Fahey Funeral Home Chapel in Bay St. Louis. Following the services the funeral procession traveled to Pearl River, La., for burial in the Porter Cemetery.

Cannon, 64, an insurance agent with the United Insurance Company of America, and a resident of 312 Favre St. in Waveland, died Wednesday at Forrest General Hospital in Hattiesburg.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Gladys P. Cannon of Waveland; six sons, Frederick W. Cannon Jr. and Daryll Cannon, both of New Orleans, William B. Cannon and Vital E. Cannon, both of Waveland, George Weir of Sunnydale, Calif., and Robert Weir of McNeill; two daughters, Patricia Weir of Redwood City, Calif., and Mrs. Kathy Leehan of Slidell; one brother, Earl Cannon of Metairie; and five grandchildren.

Included in the graduating class was Joseph Martin Tate, 506 Booker Street, Bay St. Louis.

Tate is awarded law degree

Georgetown University's Law Center conferred over 750 law degrees to its graduates on May 29, during a special commencement ceremony at the University's main campus.

The Law Center granted 610 Juris Doctor degrees, 100 degrees for Master of Law in Taxation, 40 degrees for Master of Laws and seven degrees for Masters of Comparative Law.

Included in the graduating class was Joseph Martin Tate, 506 Booker Street, Bay St. Louis.

PROCLAMATION

PROCLAMATION SETTING JUNE 9 AS

KATRINA MC DONALD DAY

WHEREAS, Mrs. C. C. (Katrina) McDonald, Sr., came to Bay St. Louis in 1915 from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, as a teacher in Bay High School and in 1919 was married to C. C. McDonald, Sr., who had just returned from service in World War I, and

WHEREAS, for more than 60 years Mrs. McDonald has devoted herself to serving this community in many capacities - educator, organizer of the local PTA; service in Hospital Auxiliary and leader of the Candy Stripper movement; girl scout leader on a regional level; teacher in the Main Street Methodist Sunday School, etc. She also served as National President of the A. O. P. I. Sorority. With her husband she has been most generous in donations toward civic activities and was among those working toward a better library, and

WHEREAS, Mrs. McDonald retired last year because of a heart condition and is now responding to treatments satisfactorily. Her strength is limited and her birthday, June 9, must of necessity be quietly celebrated.

THEREFORE, in recognition of the above I, Warren J. Carver, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, do hereby proclaim June 9 as Katrina McDonald day and call upon the people of Bay St. Louis to reflect on the services and leadership given to this community by this noble lady.

WARREN J. CARVER
MAYOR

CITY OF BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI

HAROLD V. CARVER

Councilman Ward 2

DEAR VOTER:

DURING MY 30 YEARS AS A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESSMAN I HAVE COME TO APPRECIATE THE VALUE OF SOUND BUSINESS PRINCIPLES AND ALSO HOW TO WORK WITH PEOPLE. PLEASE ELECT ME YOUR COUNCILMAN AND LET ME PUT THIS KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE TO WORK IN OUR CITY GOVERNMENT.

YOUR TAX DOLLARS DESERVE THE SAME RESPECT AS YOUR CONSUMER DOLLARS. AS A MERCHANT I HAVE ALWAYS GIVEN YOU FULL VALUE FOR YOUR CONSUMER DOLLAR AND AS YOUR COUNCILMAN I WILL SEE THAT YOU RECEIVE FULL VALUE FOR YOUR TAX DOLLAR.

OUR CITY NEEDS GOOD MANAGEMENT JUST AS ANY BUSINESS. PROPER PLANNING AND BUDGETING, CAREFUL BOOKKEEPING AND AUDITING, PREVENTION OF WASTE AND UNNECESSARY EXPENSE ARE JUST AS IMPORTANT IN GOVERNMENT AS IN COMMERCE.

THESE FUNCTIONS PROPERLY PERTAIN TO THE COUNCIL AND WILL BE MY GOALS FOR OUR CITY COUNCIL. ROUTINE REPORTING TO YOU AS TAXPAYERS WILL ALSO BE DONE.

THINK OF YOUR TAX DOLLARS AND PLEASE VOTE FOR HAROLD V. CARVER ON JUNE 7TH.

SINCERELY,

Harold V. Carver

Katrina McDonald Day planned for June 9th

BY JOE PILET

In recognition of more than 60 years of service to those in this community, Mayor Warren Carver has set aside Thursday, June 9, as Katrina McDonald Day. On that date in the year 1897, Katrina Overall was born in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N.D. Overall, carefully guided the education, training and development of their talented and intelligent daughter who in 1915 came to Bay St. Louis as a teacher in Bay High School.

From the early beginning Katrina devoted her energies and talents to serving the community in school, church, and civic oriented activities.

In 1919 she was married to C.C. McDonald, who had just returned from serving in World War I.

Ever a leader, Katrina's activities included working with the PTA, Scouting, Hospital Auxiliary, and service organizations too numerous to mention. One of her most demanding tasks was serving as National President of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Katrina's love for this community has never failed, but recently her activities were restricted because of a heart condition. "She is a grand old girl," declared her husband, "and she is responding well to treatment but Katrina's birthday this year will just have to be a quiet and limited celebration."

JAY REED

Dairying is the only form of agriculture found in each of the 50 states.

Reed receives commission

Jay F. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Reed of Bay St.

Louis, was recently commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

The commissioning took place in conjunction with spring commencement exercises at the University of Southern Mississippi.

A graduate of Long Beach High School, Reed earned his commission through USM's Department of Air Force ROTC.

Reed's first assignment is to attend supersonic pilot training at Vance Air Force Base in Oklahoma.

Seven items of verse from the talented pen of.....

Lizette Woods

WHAT TO WRITE

Sitting here with my pen,
Don't know what to do
My thoughts
Just won't come through.
If only I could speak my mind,
I wonder what I could find,
Maybe just a jumble of words,
Representing incoherent thoughts.
That's not very heartening.
'Cuz an ego's a very big thing,
What would I write if I could Write my thoughts?
I don't know.
Maybe a lot of people would disapprove.
So, what if they would?
I don't care!
I'd just sit here in this darned
ole chair,
And let my thoughts wander around.
While my heart goes
Down,
Down,
Down...

A MOTHER'S PRAYER

I silently placed a wreath of flowers,
On her tiny grave
Knowing full well why she had not been saved
And almost hating Him for His mighty powers

Through my watering eyes
I look back and see laughter and tears
Bed-time stories and childhood fears
Ice cream cones, rag dolls and dimes.

Peppermints, fairy tales and pony rides.
But, in all of this I did not see,
Love, or most of all, Thee,
I hope she has all of this and more

Now that she is saved and has walked through Heaven's door!

THREE WISHES

If a Wishman came to your door,
Yelling, "Three wishes for a dollar,"
What would you buy?
Eyes for the blind child down
the street,
Or words so that someone mute may speak?
Perhaps ears for a dear friend,
Or legs for someone to walk
again?
Maybe love for someone
lonely,
Or would they be for your benefit, only?
Start thinking about it and
When the Wishman does appear,
Wish for happiness to all far and near!.

WHO AM I?

I know I'm just another girl,
I'm not a ruby nor a pearl,
Oh! But my life would be complete,
If only me I'd chance to meet.

Will I never find that
"somewhere,"
To be my own or one of a pair
To yell and scream and shout aloud,
This is "me" and I'm very proud.

Am I one to stay at home,
Or will I gamble on my own?
Am I to be a charming Miss,
Or carry my own in truthful bliss.

Who knows where God may lead me,
And thus my destination be?
As long as he leads me
strongly,
Forever rightly, never wrongly.

SNOWFLAKES

Snowflakes whirling to the ground;
Softly floating, not making a sound,
When I stand on my hill
looking over the town,
I see twinkling diamonds
earthbound.

WOULD YOU STAND BY ME?

Would you stand with me
In my time of need?
Walk a thousand miles
Just for me?

Would you stand by me
When I loose my way?
Lead me safely home,
And with you all I'll stay?

Would you stand by me
When my sins mount high?
Look beyond the clouds
To a brighter sky?

Would you stand by me
When I'm down and old?
And embrace me gently
When my blood runs cold?

If you stand by me
And to me be true
Then our hearts will be one
That once were two.

BY ONE HAND

The child and her mother stood;
In the midst of a deep green forest
The mother raised her eyes
T o w a r d s G o d
And the child bowed her head
"Thankyou for my blindness,"
S he s a i d ,
"So that one other might see,
For my deafness,
That one other might hear,
And my illness, too
That some other one might Be healthy.
But most of all dear Lord,
I thank you for sending, Your own dear Son, to this land
Linking you and me, forever
By one hand."

Students honored with awards

CEHS, CEDS stage final event of year

Honors Night, the final event of the school year at Christ Episcopal Day School and Coast Episcopal High School, was held in Christ Episcopal Church, Tuesday evening, May 31st.

Students who earned a 90 or above in each subject received certificates of recognition for their scholastic ability. These students included first graders Page Murphy (top student in her class), Kim Coggan, Nancy Drury, Hillary Harris, Blythe Hennessey, Bridget Hennessey, Claudia Poolson, Cody Ries, Michael Vegas; also, Jennifer Burrows (first in her class), Daniel Dearmond, James Dearmond, Randy Dunaway, Morrison Lewis, Michael Matheny, Cristen Thompson and Eric Zala. Scott Watkins was top student in the second grade, and Lizette Giles, Parker Deen, and Robinette Lipscomb followed closely behind. Top student in the third grade was Marcy Wood, followed by Jody Comprett, Helen Hensley, Mona Hudson, Darren Kreitz, Connie Lambert, Colette Neyrey, Christopher Patton and Dana Wheeler. Fourth grader Mark Wheeler led his class, along with Kathy Colson, Tricia Hennessey, Shannon Lewis, Jack Mickelberg, Michael Neyrey, Lisette Saucer, Gary Thompson, Kelly Williams and Glenda Young. Courtney Egan had highest scholastic average in the fifth grade, closely followed by Jennifer Cockrell, Michael Simoneaux, Julie Unangst and Chris Villar; while Will Loechel topped sixth graders Steve Colson and Caroline Madden.

High School students honored for scholastic achievement included seventh graders Skip Horne, Sylvia Rogers and Jill Talbot; ninth grade students Lauri Wood, Helene Giles and Shelly Stewart; Sara Furr, Shelly McNair and Nancy Becker from the tenth grade; and Jim Miller and Charlie McCall from the eleventh grade, all in that order.

Perfect attendance awards went to Robert Stroud, second grade; Connie Lambert, third grade; and to Shaw Hennessey and Gavin Whitlock, fifth grade.

For outstanding work in elementary art, certificates were given to Robby Decrevel, Chad Watrous and Becky Stewart. Athletic certificates were given for participation on the elementary basketball team to Shannon Krieger, Steve Colson, Jerry Munro, Roy Lipscomb, Robby Boyd, Chad Watrous, Walter Smith, Will Loechel, Erwin Truett, Chris Whitlock and Robby Decrevel. A Spelling Bee was held between the sixth grade class of CEDS and the seventh grade class of CEHS this year, and sixth grade student Roy Lipscomb was awarded a plaque as winner of the event. Certificates were also given to runners-up Ann Hartnett, Caroline Madden and Steve Colson of the sixth grade, and to Pierre Simoneaux of the seventh grade.

Of the 45,011 students who entered the 1977 National French Contest this year, two CEDS students, Tricia Hennessey and Steve Colson, were national winners and were awarded medals and certificates depicting this honor.

It is interesting to note that only one other student from the State of Mississippi was among the list of National winners, she being a student at St. Andrew's Episcopal School in Jackson.

French awards to high school students participating in the National French Exams included Certificate of Merit to Maggie Drury, Elizabeth Santa Cruz and Jason Fairley; and Certificate of Honor to Ginny Vegas, Shelly McNair and Nancy Becker. Ginny Vegas received honors for having the highest average in advanced French, and Lauri Wood for the highest average in beginning French. Helene Giles took honors for the most promising beginning French student; and Ginny Vegas received the award for most outstanding French student.

Other language awards on the high school level included Shelly Stewart, Latin; and David McDonald and Sara Furr, German.

For outstanding work in American History, certificates of award were presented by the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to fifth grade students, Tish Ortiz, Robby Boyd, Shaw Hennessey, Julie Unangst and Courtney Egan; and to sixth graders Caroline Madden, Jerry Munro, Alison Frank, Will Loechel, and Steve Colson. For the best essays, Courtney Egan and Steve Colson were also presented medals. Skip Horne and Jamie Hall received D.A.R. medals for their outstanding work in American History on the high school level, with John Kuhn receiving a certificate.

The Science award went to Skip Horne; Mu Alpha Theta awards in Mathematics to

Robin Coffey, Jodi Irmund,

Jim Miller and J. J. Sandlin.

Lauri Wood received the Speech award; Skip Horne

and Lauri Wood were recipients of the Optimist Club awards; John Scranage and

At Large

DEAR VOTERS:

The future of our city is now!

Your votes on the 7th of June will determine the future of Bay St. Louis with its new Mayor-Council form of government. A vote for the best qualified candidates to represent you and the community will result in positive actions to improve the overall conditions existing at this time and promote the well-being of our present and future citizens.

I do not profess to "know" all the answers, nor do I make any "wild" promises, but I do promise, as an experienced administrator, to bring honesty, dedication, dignity, leadership and hard work to this most important office. The Councilman at Large, under the law, is the person who becomes mayor during any prolonged absence or disability of the mayor - and functions as your mayor until the duly elected mayor returns to office.

Those of you who desire or need transportation, please call 467-7792 and transportation will be arranged.

I humbly ask for your support and all-important votes on June 7th.

Sincerely,

Turcotte holds probable record for longest dive close to North Pole

Jim Turcotte, a resident of Bay St. Louis, is a Navy oceanographer who is also fully qualified as a Navy diver with diving assignments that have taken him all over the world, including the Arctic Ocean close to the North Pole. Employed by the Naval Ocean Research and Development Activity (NORDA) at the National Space Technology Laboratories (NSTL), he is one of the group who transferred to this area from Maryland in the relocation of NORDA and the Naval Oceanographic Office (NAVOCEANO) to NSTL.

Turcotte only recently returned from a diving expedition to the Baltic Sea on loan from NORDA to NAVOCEANO, his former employer. During an eight-day period he made about a dozen dives in water of 37 degrees F and with visibility that was frequently zero and never more than four or five feet.

This was a piece of cake, however, compared to his experience in November, 1970, in the Arctic as a member of a diving team demonstrating ice diving capability and evaluating for the Navy how well various types of diving suits provided protection in sub-freezing waters. Dives were conducted off Point Barrow, Alaska, near the Naval Arctic Research Laboratory (NARL) and at the floating ice island T-3, a research ice station operated by the NARL. Turcotte made a total of nine dives in water below 30.6 degrees F with the outside temperature ranging from 15 above to 39 degrees below zero. In each dive he stayed down for at least one hour, and in one dive at Point Barrow he recorded an endurance of one hour and 55 minutes, 37 minutes longer than any other dive made by the team. At T-3 he also recorded the longest dive (78 minutes) in water of 28.9 degrees F. Since T-3 was then 75 miles from the North Pole, this is almost certainly a record for the longest dive in a wet suit made that close to the Pole.

Although three different types of suits were evaluated in the Arctic dives, Turcotte could only fit into one type because of his height (6'2"), and unfortunately it proved to be the one that provided the least protection from the cold. On one dive it was so cold that his lip froze to the metal mouthpiece or breathing regulator. His lip remained frostbitten during the remainder of his dives, in which he managed to complete a total of 11 hours under the Arctic ice. The dives on T-3 were made through a 16 foot deep hole in the ice. He remembers finding himself walking upside down on the bottom of the ice. He became disoriented and thought he was walking upright. He had to convince himself that the "well" he spotted was actually the hole he had to go through to return to the surface.

Despite the cold temperature, these dives were not as tricky as those he made off Argus Island, the Navy's oceanographic tower 30 miles off Bermuda (now no longer in existence). There it was a problem of getting into and out of the water with swells that were ten feet high while weighted down by heavy and bulky diving gear. It took a week of difficult diving before it was figured out how to do it without getting battered. During a two week period, daily dives were made to the 193-foot bottom.

Early in his diving career in 1966 he was selected as a diver for the Sealab-3 undersea habitat program off San Diego. He received special training in a pressurized tank, reaching a simulated depth of 265 feet on air. In this dive he experienced nitrogen narcosis, which is "like you've had ten martinis." He also made a dive to a simulated depth of 320 feet on helium-oxygen. A medical problem, however, ruled him out of the program while the other divers who trained with him went out to the West Coast. One of them was Barry Cannon whose accidental death during a preliminary dive ended the program.

Turcotte's more pleasant diving memories include his work in the Bahamas and Caribbean. He was the diving supervisor of a team that conducted the underwater surveys off St. John in the Virgin Islands in preparation for Project Tektite, a long-endurance underwater habitat program in 1969 co-sponsored by the Office of Naval Research, the Department of Interior and NASA. The survey resulted in the selection of the St. John site, where four aquanaut-scientists remained on the ocean bottom for a record of 60 days.

Turcotte is also a skilled underwater photographer and has taken motion pictures for films produced by the Oceanographer of the Navy, including "Scientists at Sea." He has also taken jobs for commercial organizations while on leave, including a job in the North Sea and another off Freeport, Bahamas. Although he has not yet had a diving assignment with NORDA, he hopes the occasion will arise. NORDA believes it might and insures that Jim and another oceanographer-diver, Bob Guthrie, keep their formal diver qualifications up to date by arranging requalifying dives in the Gulf off Biloxi under the direction of Lieutenant Tom Christensen.

Registration is open

Registration is still open for boys between the ages of 7 and 12 and girls between the ages of 8 and 12 for the city's parks and playgrounds. Minor League baseball, "T" ball, and minor league softball programs, Billy Rhodes director, announced this week.

Registration for the boys will be held Monday, June 6 at 9 a.m. at McDonald Field.

Practice will be held on Blessing of the Fleet...

Ceremonies will start Saturday at 2 p.m. and the public is invited to attend the festivities.

Leading the procession will be a boat from the Mississippi Boat and Water Safety Control Commission followed by an official boat from the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission.

Rev. Kenneth Brown, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Pearlington, will perform the traditional blessing which heralds the opening of the shrimp season.

After the boats are blessed they will proceed to the Bayou Cadet entrance where they will be reviewed by officials of Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Hancock County. The officials will be embarked in the cruiser OMECO, owned by John Housey, chairman of the Board of Orleans Materials, New Orleans.

Judging the boats for best decorations will be Mrs. Terry Markel of Waveland, C.M. Curnett of Kiln and Earl Buller of Pearlington.

Bayou Cadet is located at the end of Beach Blvd., west of Waveland. The public is urged to come early in order to get a good location and parking space.

The blessing was originally scheduled for June 4th, but was switched to Saturday, June 11th in conjunction with the opening of shrimp season on June 13th.

Diamondhead golf event

The Diamondhead Women's Golf Association held a "Most Pars or Better" event on Thursday, June 2nd at the local course.

Joycelyn Tresch was the Class A winner with Doris Diamond as runner-up.

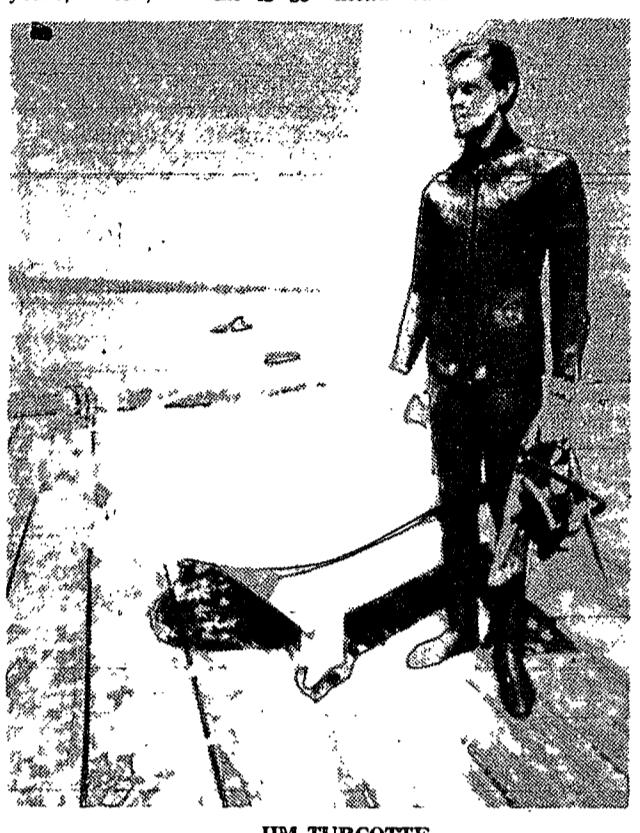

Marion Engelhorn won the Class B division and had 27 putts for the lowest number of putts. Char Hanson was runner-up. Char Hanson and Doris Diamond tied for closest to the hole on number 2.

NORDA's Diving Officer. At age 39, Turcotte is approaching the age when annual physical exams are required to maintain diving qualification. However, he hopes to get in a lot more diving in the next several years, which, to him is so enjoyable he feels guilty getting paid for it. For recreation, however, Turcotte never goes near the water. He and his wife Mary Ellen are busily engaged in building a house of an unusual design at Diamondhead. They have a 17 month-old son.

Southeast Mississippi is known for its hot, humid summers. Air conditioners bring comfort — but they also bring higher electric service bills. In fact, Mississippi Power's typical residential customer uses twice as many kilowatt hours of electricity in the summer months as in April. We want to help you get the greatest possible value from your electric service dollar. These air conditioning suggestions may help.

WHEN YOUR THERMOSTAT SETTING IS...

DESIGN SETTING	AT 78°	AT 77°	AT 76°	AT 75°	AT 74°	AT 73°	AT 72°
	8%	18%	28%	39%	50%	63%

THERMOSTAT SETTING

A few degrees will make a big difference! For greater efficiency and less cost during the summer, set the thermostat at the highest comfortable temperature, usually about 78 degrees or higher. As shown by the chart at right, the difference between maintaining 78 degrees and 72 degrees can increase energy consumption as much as 63 percent.

FILTER MAINTENANCE

Clean or change the air conditioning filter at least once a month — more frequently if necessary. A dirty or clogged filter will make your air conditioning unit work harder and use more electricity. A dirty filter may lead to serious and expensive repairs.

GENERAL OPERATION

If your air conditioner has been shut off during a cool night, give it an early start the next morning before a new day's heat fills the house. But remember, when starting the unit, don't set the thermostat on a colder-than-normal setting. This will only make the unit run longer, not cool any faster.

FREE PASSAGE OF AIR

Don't block the air flow the equipment needs. Keep shrubbery trimmed around the air conditioning equipment. Inside, make certain that you keep window drapes and furniture out of air flow path.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY RATIO

If you replace or add a cooling unit, select one with a high energy efficiency ratio (EER). The higher the EER number, the more efficient the cooling unit. Generally, an EER number of 7.5 or better is considered good.

EQUIPMENT INSPECTION

It's a good idea to have your air conditioning equipment inspected by a qualified serviceman at the beginning of the cooling season. You could prevent an expensive repair bill later. And remember, an air conditioning unit in proper working condition will mean better efficiency and lower operating costs.

You'll find many other ideas about the wise use of electricity in our newly-revised "Energy Management Handbook". Pick up a free copy at any Mississippi Power Company office, or we'll be glad to mail you a copy. Send request to: Mississippi Power Company, Public Information Department, Box 4079, Gulfport, MS 39501.
